World Class Logistics Consulting Announces 3PL Partnership Program

Long Beach, CA – November 9, 2009 - World Class Logistics Consulting, Inc. (WCL Consulting) today announced the launch of a new service: the Third-Party Logistics Partnership Program. According to Jon DeCesare, President, WCL Consulting, “This Program, comprised of a suite of services, was developed based on increasing interest from our multi-national clients and is designed to help shippers select, evaluate and manage successful 3PL relationships. The service is staffed with specialized teams with decades of 3PL Management and Consulting experience with the goal to reduce cost and increase the performance of subcontracted logistics services. Resources include the use of sophisticated information technology, including a unique database of hundreds of third-party logistics providers. Our in-depth experience and knowledge of the US and Southern California 3PL industry enables us to provide high-quality advice on building and maintaining successful 3PL partnerships.”
